

Who We Are

Ti Ti Tábor Hungarian Folk Camp is a non-profit organization offering a rich immersion experience into authentic Hungarian folk culture for adults and children alike. In its 21st year, our camp brings experts from Hungary to teach folk dancing, music, singing, games, and traditional folk arts.

Whether you are a long time camper or someone with no previous experience with Hungarian culture, this camp offers something for everyone!

Programs and Activities

CHILDREN'S PROGRAM ~ New!

Our newly expanded children's program offers something for children of all ages. Children will explore Hungarian folk tales through dance, songs, folk crafts, and games.

SINGING PROGRAM ~ New!

Brand new this year, singing lessons in both folk and classical styles will be offered in groups and individual formats.

DANCE PROGRAM ~ Suitable for all experience levels, we will be exploring dances from the Galga-Menti region in Hungary and the Mezőkölpényi region in Transylvania.

MUSIC PROGRAM ~ Instruction on traditional folk instruments is offered. Lessons will focus on learning the melodies and playing style of the Galga-Menti and Mezőkölpényi regions.

All programs include daily morning and afternoon sessions.

EVENING DANCE PARTY ~ Each day culminates in the nightly, recreational folk dance party, or táncház, held to live music. A children's táncház will be held each evening before the regular táncház.

OTHER ACTIVITIES ~ Throughout the week opportunities for additional fun include a Hungarian banquet, ice cream social, bonfire, puzzles, swimming, and canoeing, just to name a few!

EARLY BIRD REGISTRATION BEGINS IN JANUARY!

Early bird prices ~Adult Participant: $595 Children: ages 6-12 $295, ages 3-5 $75
