

Ti Ti Tábor Hungarian Folk Camp

CRAIG FORSTER MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION 2019

Ti Ti Tábor is an annual event providing outstanding training opportunities in Hungarian folk music and folk dance. In addition to the excellence of its learning possibilities, Ti Ti Tábor brings its participants together as a community, in every sense of the word: a group of enthusiasts, a family of "folkies," and – perhaps especially – a gathering of friends whose common bonds are further strengthened with each camp.

Craig Forster epitomized the Ti Ti Tábor camp experience. His warmth, generosity, cheer, and volunteerism helped to make each week memorable; moreover, he expressed genuine pleasure in continuing the legacy of great Hungarian musicianship. In memory of Craig, the Ti Ti Tábor Board of Directors has established a scholarship to offer assistance in attending camp to a deserving applicant.

The Craig Forster Scholarship provides a waiver of fees for the week-long camp, including tuition and room and board. Depending on funds available, half and/or full scholarships will be awarded. Anyone (aged 18 years or older) interested in sharing the Ti Ti Tábor experience with our community of enthusiastic and welcoming Hungarophiles is encouraged to apply.
