

Ti Ti Tábor Hungarian Folk Camp

CRAIG FORSTER MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION 2020

Ti Ti Tábor is an annual event providing outstanding training opportunities in Hungarian folk music and folk dance. In addition to the excellence of its learning possibilities, Ti Ti Tábor brings its participants together as a community: a group of enthusiasts, a family of “folkies,” and – perhaps especially – a gathering of friends whose common bonds are further strengthened with each camp.

Craig Forster epitomized the Ti Ti Tábor camp experience. His warmth, generosity, cheer, and volunteerism helped to make each week memorable. In memory of Craig, the Ti Ti Tábor Board of Directors has established a scholarship to offer assistance in attending camp to deserving applicants. The scholarship provides a waiver of fees for the week-long camp, including tuition and room and board. Depending on funds available, half and/or full scholarships will be awarded. Anyone (aged 13 years or older) interested in sharing the Ti Ti Tábor experience with our community of enthusiastic and welcoming Hungarophiles is encouraged to apply.

The following factors are taken into consideration in the award decisions:

- Financial need
- Motivation (interest/enthusiasm)
- Connection to the Hungarian community
- Plans for sharing newly acquired skills/knowledge

Children under 18 are not permitted at camp without a designated adult on-site. If you are not able to attend camp with your child you may designate another adult to be responsible for your child. We require notarized permission if your child is attending camp with an adult that is not their legal guardian.
